Performance Benchmarks

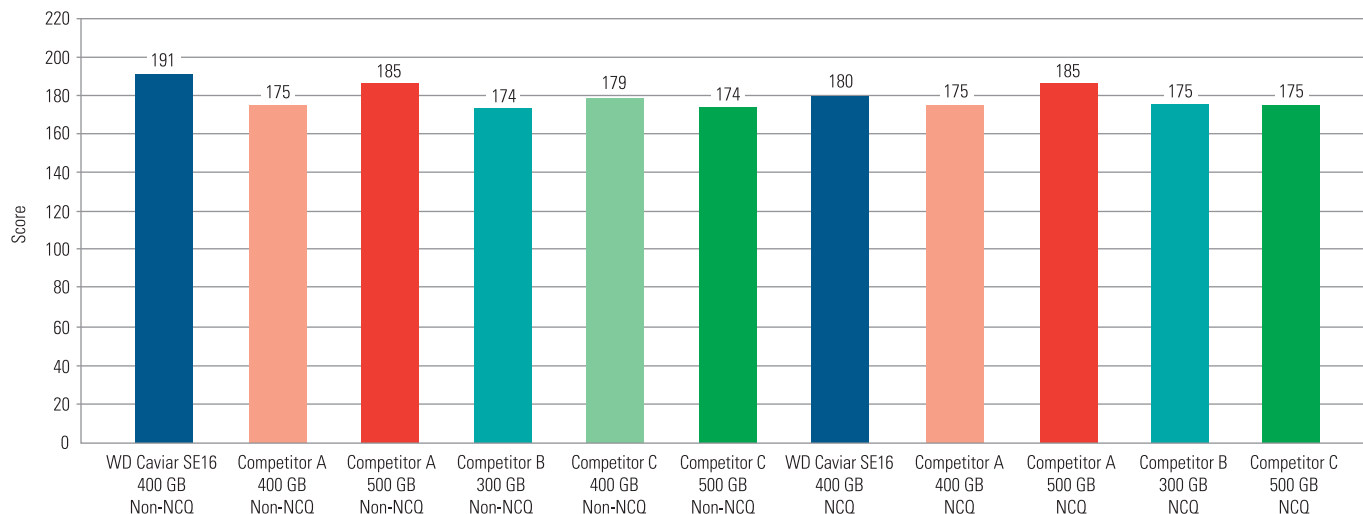

PCMark®04 – Hard Drive Score

PCMark04 – An application-based benchmark and a premium tool for measuring overall PC performance. It uses portions of real applications rather than very large applications or specifically created code.

SYSmark® 2004 SE (Office)

SYSmark 2004 SE (Office) – A premier performance metric that measures and compares PC performance based on real world applications. Widely used by the press, both print and Web, as a means of evaluating the impact of base PC component performance at a system level.
